

To whom it may concern,

My name is Michael Pomeroy and I have had the pleasure of coaching Iliana Munoz during the summer of 2019. During that time, I was able to get to know Iliana as a player, student, and person.

Iliana was always very hardworking. She did whatever was needed to help her team and was a leader in many different ways. Over the summer months Iliana showed character by uplifting her team and playing multiple positions dependent on what was needed of her at the time being. She has a positive attitude that is contagious to her teammates and always got along with everyone. No matter what the score, winning or losing, Iliana was focused and locked in, always doing her best and putting forth every ounce of effort that she could.

I can honestly state that Iliana is one of the hardest working players in her class and the athletic ability that she displayed is that of a kid with the potential to play at the highest level. She was always at 100% during practices, hitting sessions, and small group work. I thoroughly enjoyed watching her grow as a player this summer, she is a player that every coach dreams about being able to coach. I am excited to see what her future holds and will continue to follow her throughout her high school and college career.

Sincerely

Michael Pomeroy
